

Show what you can do

8

Listening: The history of Halloween

a) Listen to the interview. Then tick T (= true) or F (= false).

1. Halloween falls on the night of October 31st.
2. More than 2,000 years ago, the Romans celebrated Halloween.
3. In this night, people said that the dead and the living came together.
4. Europeans brought the tradition of Halloween to Asia.
5. Pumpkins with lanterns inside are called jack-o'-lanterns.
6. These days, children dress up as bad creatures.
7. Children go around their neighbourhood to trick-and-feed.

	T	F
1.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

b) Listen again and correct the wrong sentences. Write them in your exercise book.

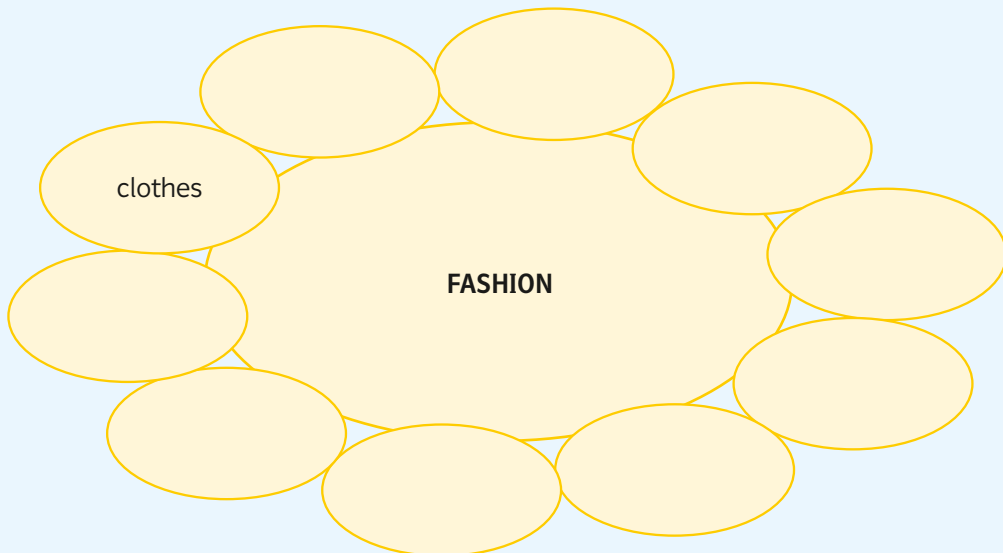

I can listen for specific information and understand an audio track.

9

Speaking and writing: What do you think about fashion?

a) What do you think of when you hear the word fashion? Complete the word cloud below.

b) Use the word cloud and write a text (ca. 60 words) about "Fashion" in your exercise book.

c) Find a partner and present your texts to each other.

I can work with vocabulary and use them in a personal written statement.